

RISE Youth Seminar 2006

Two days of Refreshing, Inspiring speakers to Stimulate and Enthuse!

13, 14 November 2006
Hotel Intercontinental
Wellington

Do you work with children and youth? Is it time to refresh your approach to providing services, inspire new ideas, stimulate your creative juices and be enthused?

Wellington City Libraries is proud to be hosting this professional development seminar for all staff providing child and youth services in New Zealand libraries, including library students, school librarians or anyone with an interest. An exciting line-up of speakers will present a wide range of child and youth topics to suit the specialist and grass roots level librarian. Some highlights:

- Refreshing: Rod Baxter from the Wellington Girls and Boys Institute “Youth participation: Connecting with teens in libraries”
- Inspiring: Karen Scott, creator and editor of Tots to Teens magazine, shares her journey from single Mum to Managing Director, as well as her success in business.
- Stimulating: Kini Piper (WCL) “After the Odyssey: SubText06” and Viv Smith (NPL) “So do young adults need libraries?” - compare case studies of a large and small library
- Enthused: award winning producer for Radio New Zealand, Simon Morton: “Emerging technologies and impact on teens/libraries.”

Registrations open on 1 August 2006. For registration enquiries email rise@wcc.govt.nz.
