

SLANZA Award of Excellence : Information Literacy Programmes

Description of the award:

Recipients will demonstrate success in implementing and maintaining an excellent information literacy programme for students that incorporates all aspects of the following definition:

“Information literacy is a set of abilities requiring individuals to recognize when information is needed and have the ability to locate, evaluate, and use effectively the needed information”. (From ALA website <http://www.ala.org/Template.cfm?Section=Home&template=/ContentManagement/ContentDisplay.cfm&ContentID=33553> Accessed 9/11/2017)

Recipient Eligibility:

- May be awarded to more than one member each year.
- Nominees must have been members for at least two consecutive years.
- May be awarded more than once to the same member for different achievements.
- The achievement being recognised must have taken place within the previous three years.

Criteria:

The successful recipient will:

- Provide evidence of the implementation and application of a successful information literacy programme with either all junior school students, all senior school students, or the whole school.
- Provide evidence of the promotion of that literacy model.
- Provide evidence of how the programme has impacted the students who have undertaken it.
- Describe how they have shared their information literacy programme to the wider school library community.

Process

- € The closing date for nominations is Monday September 6, 2021
- € The nominee's suitability will be assessed by the SLANZA Awards Committee in terms of the above criteria
