SLANZA Otago

Weekend School 2016

---

Saturday 3rd September 9am-4pm

Sunday 4th September 9am-12.30pm

John McGlashan College Library, Dunedin

- Christchurch school librarian and author Desna Wallace will talk about her book, Canterbury Quake: Christchurch 2010-2011, and about the Fendalton Open Air School Library.
- A panel discussion on the all-important pastoral care and mentoring role of school librarians featuring panellists Jenny Hurley (Director at London House Learning Centre), Rachel Kerr (guidance counsellor at Kaikorai Valley College), Krystene Todd (Librarian at Fairfield Primary School) and Jenny Millar (Librarian at Logan Park High School).
- Paul du Temple (Wheelers Books) will speak about connecting students from Year 1 to Year 13 with ebooks and digital collections.
- Miriam Tuohy (immediate Past President of SLANZA and Librarian at Palmerston North Girls' High School) will provide advice and inspiration in 'Your dream library collection – regardless of budget'.
- Book Jam and share your most popular new books, learn how to get the best out of Goodreads and find out about great books for your students.

- A workshop on using free online design tool Canva to create cool flyers, posters, infographics and more led by Miriam Tuohy and Bridget Schaumann (Librarian at King's High School and also a Past President of SLANZA)
- Need ideas for Library Week activities? Why reinvent the wheel when you can 'borrow' ideas from your colleagues? This session is an example of library collaboration at its finest!
- A chance to grow your personal learning network by meeting and talking with fellow librarians over a coffee and in breakout sessions.
- Optional social events include 'Party Like a Book Nerd' (an informal icebreaker over Friday night drinks at the iconic Captain Cook Hotel in the University area of Dunedin) and dinner on Saturday evening at Zucchini Brothers in Dunedin's Exchange area
